

German Egyptian Research Short Term Scholarships (GERSS)

Autumn Call 2015/16

As an outcome of the successful German Egyptian Year of Science & Technology 2007, a cooperation agreement has been signed between the Ministry of Higher Education of the Arab Republic of Egypt (MoHE) and the Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst Bonn (DAAD) in order to finance short term scholarships for young Egyptian scientists to travel to Germany.

The target groups of the programme are researchers enrolled in MSc, PhD programmes and young Post Doctoral candidates. The scholarships may be awarded for a period from three to six months.

Purpose

Each year a group of researchers will be sent to Germany for Master's, Doctoral and Post doctoral studies in the fields agreed upon by both parties. The distribution of the monthly units will be defined by an independent selection committee appointed by the Egyptian and the German sides according to the proposals presented by the candidates. This distribution may change annually if both parties agree. The number of months granted for each candidate should not exceed six months and should not be less than three months. Scholarship periods are not extendable.

The scholarship shall enable advanced graduate students and young scientists to pursue part of their master's, doctoral or post doctoral research in a specific research project at German universities, archives, libraries or research institutes.

Eligibility

- The application is also open to non-public university staff members; however, all GERSS applicants should be affiliated to a private or public Egyptian university or Egyptian research institute.
- As a general rule, candidates residing outside Egypt for a period longer than 6 months are not allowed to apply for GERSS.
- Candidates who have been granted the GERLS scholarship may apply for GERSS one year after returning from Germany.

- Applicants who have been rejected 3 times in the GERSS programme, are not entitled to reapply.
- The Candidates from non-public universities will be limited in number according to the internal regulations between the Ministry of Higher Education and DAAD.
- Dual application with the Egyptian Ministry's programmes is possible; however dual funding is not permitted. Applicants are expected to inform the DAAD if they have submitted a parallel application or have been awarded a Ministry's scholarship.
- Candidates who received a DAAD funded scholarship at a certain academic stage are not allowed to apply for GERSS unless they change their academic status.
- Academic studies in musicology are offered within the GERSS scholarship however instrumentalists can only apply for the German Egyptian Research Long-Term Scholarship (GERLS). For more details please refer to the GERLS Info sheet available on the following DAAD link:
<http://cairo.daad.de/en/studyingresearchgermany/scholarshipforeigners/doctoralcandidates/>
- Candidates from the field of medicine can only apply for GERSS if they intend to visit Germany for research purposes with no direct contact with the patients.
- In the medical field, the scholarship is not restricted to research projects but may also be granted for training purposes. This applies only to medical students with research and clinical projects who have no direct contact with the patient.
Due to the limited time of the scholarship it is not possible to obtain the medical license of practicing medicine.
- Candidates affiliated to public universities and research institutes should have completed two years of employment by the expected travel date.

Age

- Graduates: should not be older than 26 years.
- Medicine Graduates: should not be older than 29 years.
- PhD candidates: should not exceed 36 years. However priority will be given to young scientists.
- Post doc candidates should not be older than 40 years.

Reapplication rule

- Former GERSS scholarship holders may reapply, however these candidates can only be supported once at every stage of their research career (as Bachelor's, Master's, PhD holders)
- The same applies for candidates who have been granted other scholarships by the Egyptian Ministry of Higher Education.

Selection of the candidates:

The candidates will be selected in two rounds. First, a pre-selection procedure will identify the group of applicants who will be invited for the second phase consisting of a personal interview with the GERSS independent selection committee appointed by the Egyptian and the German sides. Pre- and final selection of the candidates should be conducted according to, but not limited to the following criteria:

- Excellent Research proposal.
- Scientific merits, including:
  - A -Quality of the proposal.
  - B -The benefit to Egypt.
  - C -Preparation and feasibility of the project.
  - D -Quality of the acceptance letter.
- Excellent study achievement.
- Good command of languages: English language command is required. German language command is a plus.

Areas of Research

On a general basis, priority will be given to the following fields without excluding any other field: water, renewable energies, medical sciences, material sciences, biotechnology, social sciences and humanities.

Scholarships are not awarded for general-information gathering, visits or for the participation in scientific meetings.

Stipend

- Post-Doctoral scholarship holders will be granted an amount of Euro 2.138 (two thousand one hundred thirty eight Euros) per month.
- Doctoral and MSc scholarship holders will be granted an amount of Euro 1069 (one thousand and sixty nine Euros) per month.
- The amounts for the DAAD health insurance will be deducted from the monthly stipend of each scholarship holder.
- One additional insurance installment will be added and will begin 15 days prior to the arrival to Germany and end 15 days after the scheduled departure date to Egypt.
- Additionally a lump sum will be paid for travel and an accident and liability insurance will be provided.
- Such amounts are subject to change and will always be adapted according to the general regulations for DAAD scholarships.
- Since the GERSS scholarship does not include family allowance, scholarship holders are discouraged to be accompanied by family members due to the short research stays in Germany.
